

Tug of War

Event Description

Tug of War is a classic strength-based team event that tests coordination, endurance, and teamwork.

Rules & Guidelines

1. Each team must have an equal number of participants.
2. Teams must stand behind the marked starting line.
3. Pulling will begin only after the referee's signal.
4. The team that pulls the rope beyond the center mark wins the round.
5. Wrapping the rope around hands or body is strictly prohibited.
6. Any player falling intentionally will lead to disqualification.
7. Best of three rounds will decide the winner (if applicable).
8. The referee's decision will be final.

Competition Rulebook

1. Start: Teams line up on opposite sides of the rope; referee signals the start.
 2. Positioning:
 - The rope's centre mark must align with the ground's central line at the start.
 - Players stand in a straight line, pulling backward.
 3. Winning: A team wins when they pull the rope's center mark across their side's winning line.
 4. Fouls:
 - Sitting, lying down, or deliberately falling to gain advantage.
 - Wrapping the rope around arms, legs, or torso.
 - Use of unfair tactics (jerking, sudden release to cause falls).
 5. Rounds: Matches are usually played in best of three pulls.
 6. Disqualification: Any team committing repeated fouls or unsafe play may be disqualified.
 7. Final Decision: The referee's call is final in case of disputes.
-